The London Community Artists Spring art show is an opportunity for Londoners to meet local artists in person, view and purchase their art. This year, the show featuring our member artists will once again be held at The Collider, 2544 Advanced Avenue in London.

A collection of approximately 300 + works will be on display that include pieces created with acrylics, oils, watercolour, ink, coloured pencil, photography, fabric, paper and mixed media. All art is original and created by the members and contains works that embrace a wide variety of artistic styles including landscapes, portraits, abstracts – something for every taste!

Formed in 2019, London Community Artists is an art group with 75 member artists from the London, Ontario area. They range in experience from emerging artists to accomplished full-time professionals. Their work is often seen in many galleries and venues across London and Southwestern Ontario including ongoing public exhibits at Cherryhill Village Mall and the Convergence Centre at Western University. They also volunteer in the community by hanging their artwork at the Children's Hospital - LHSC to help cheer families and staff.
